The factory is equipped with world-class technological lines and operates according to manufacturing technologies and processes that meet requirements imposed by all applicable quality standards. The same care for the highest quality applies to the brand's latest products as to those that have been made for decades, according to traditional recipes.

The strenght of Wawel is not only in a broad portfolio of excellent sweets and chocolates. The company continues to work on new product offers for customers, broadening its position on the global market, as well as to invest in production lines, increasing their capabilities.
